Coaches and Team Staff:

Josh Akright – Head Coach

Josh is a native of East Lansing, Michigan. He played Midget Tier 1 hockey for the Compuware program in Detroit and Junior A hockey for the St. Louis Sting in the North American Hockey League (NAHL) where he captained the team to the 1999 Junior National Championship game. He played four years of NCAA D1 hockey at Western Michigan University. His professional career included two seasons with the Kalamazoo Wings in the UHL, a season in the CHL, and a championship season with the Knoxville Ice Bears of the SPHL. He has many years of coaching experience and has taught in numerous hockey camps, for the SE District of USA Hockey and has worked with the National Team Development Program (NTDP). The 2008-09 season will be Coach Akright's second with the TPH Thunder 94's.

KJ Voorhees – Assistant Coach

KJ is a native of Washington and played Junior A hockey for the Omaha Lancers of the United States Hockey League (USHL). He played four years of NCAA D1 hockey at Colorado College. His professional career spanned seven seasons including two seasons in Sweden. He scored over 100 points in the 2003-04 season for the Knoxville Ice Bears (SPHL). KJ has taught in numerous hockey schools and camps and is currently hockey director at Cool Sports in Knoxville, TN. He has also worked with the Player Development Program of the SE District of USA Hockey.

Brian Covino – Manager

Brian is a Level 4 certified coach with USA Hockey and has coached youth hockey for the past ten years. He was a longtime member of the Board of the Knoxville (TN) Amateur Hockey Association and was instrumental in starting the Cross Ice Initiation Program for skill development for youth hockey players in Knoxville. He has been an assistant coach and manager with Thunder AAA Hockey for the past three seasons. When not involved with hockey, Brian is a joint replacement surgeon with the Knoxville Orthopedic Clinic.
